Synopsis: Abdul Ghaffar Khan also known as Baccha Khan Baba or Badsha Khan was a contemporary of Mahatma Gandhi and also held similar views on non-violence, Hindu – Muslim unity while participating in the independence struggle from his homeland in Afghanistan. The lecture will touch upon the life of Khan Baba and his legacy to the Pakhtuns but a focus on his association with Bapu in the last few years of Bapu’s life will also be elaborated upon. His work in Riot torn Bihar, his becoming Bapu’s moral strength during the crucial Independence negotiations, his staunch support to Bapu in opposing the partition and his heart break on being discarded by Independent India will be discussed in the lecture.

Mr. Tushar Gandhi is a published author, a Gandhi activist, author of ‘Let’s Kill Gandhi!’ And the forthcoming ‘Ba Ni Diary, The Lost Diary of Kastur Gandhi, My Ba’. Founder President of Mahatma Gandhi Foundation and Director Gandhi Research Foundation.
