Dear friend,

I am sorry I could not reply to you till 9 June 25, 1970 earlier. I hope you will excuse the delay.

It is very difficult to answer your question. You want me to tell you what single facet of Sufism's life impressed me most. I cannot isolate any single facet for all the rest that impressed me. They all constitute an integral whole. Let us put it this way. It was not impressed on him, but if the way, to last impressed on most about Sufism was his all-embracing love, which manifested itself in his relentless observance of the five basic spiritual norms in his first early spiritual vows in his search for Truth. The ultimate Reality, the ultimate Reality, the ultimate Reality was all in all his total intelligence and all bliss - sat - chit - spar.

I shall be glad to answer any question you may wish.

Yours sincerely,
